One of the missionaries' earliest decisions was to translate the Bible into Hangul. By the time Japan colonized Korea in 1910, they had distributed more than one million Scripture portions. As the first piece of Hangul literature, the Korean Bible proved to be a thorn in the side of imperial Japan. Quoted from Christianity Today			1 Pray for the work being done on new translations of the Bible for North Korea.	2 Pray for the work being done on a new English grammar that is useable in NK.	3 Praise God for the excellent team that He is assembling for the work of the Three Seas Center and the Fourth River Project.	4 Pray for John Choi and his family as they leave the Three Seas for a one-year sabbatical.
